HOLIDAY PARTY 2023

Text by John Guyer

Every year planning the holiday party is something of a challenge. December is the logical choice, but everyone has so much to do with Christmas coming. So traditionally our club has it in January, maybe February. Then where do we have it? Usually we like to have it at someplace with an automotive theme we have not used before or at least not recently.

This year Craig Shefferly suggested the Dinner Theater at Genitti's Hole in the Wall in Northville. While it doesn't have the automotive theme, it sounded like a good time. Per their website:

The seven-course family-style Italian dinner is a guaranteed delight. Like an Italian wedding, it features lots of food, served hot on platters right to the table.

Italian Wedding Soup

Garlic Breadsticks

Genitti's Very Own White Pasta

Antipasto Salad with Italian Vinaigrette

Baked Chicken with Vegetable

Italian Steak with Oven-Roasted Potatoes

Italian Sausage with Green Peppers & Onions

Cannoli for Dessert

So your board of directors voted we should have this event Friday, February 17, 2023. An easy decision as no one else had any, much less better, ideas.

There are always slight bumps in the road. Despite the picture there is no parking in front of Genitti's, in fact the street is closed off to vehicular traffic. Parking lots within easy walking distance solved that. Dinner began at the promised 6:30 p.m. Guests included: Craig and Bonnie Shefferly, Dale and Wanda Rabe, Steve and Cathy White, John Guyer and Trish Judson, Rich and Sandy Tweedle, Larry and Jaime Spradlin, Jeff and Kathy Seaman, Sebastian and Betty Deladda, Oscar Agusti and Leslie, Phil Jacobs, Brian Greene and Jennifer Havas, Dave and Barb Hartline, Mark and Judy Kulwik, Amy Kulwik, Greg and Barb Csernai, Dylan Csernai, Glen and Sharon Madison. That's 31 people, limit was 36. Our dining room was crowded enough without the maximum number being there. Everyone agreed dinner was quite good as we moved from the eating area to join others patrons in the theatre. Murder in the Court is an inter-active show where they bring members of the audience onto the stage and hope they will do something embarrassing or at least funny. Requests are made in advance. There's no truth to the rumor that Craig was asking members for five bucks to Not be called up. But it seems Dylan's mom, Barb, may have volunteered him to participate in the performance.

Interestingly he was chosen over a perky blonde. May have been because our group was in the front rows, thus skewing the voice vote. Young Mr. Csernai performed his duties well, making his mother and fellow members proud. We need more in the club like him. After determining guilty suspect, the show came to a close as did our holiday party.

Time to start thinking about how to make next year's event even better.
